

2019 RPCC RULES & GUIDELINES

- Reno Pop Culture Con (RPCC) is a family friendly event – all panels/sessions must adhere to a PG/PG-13 rating – by applying to present you agree to adhere to family friendly standards.
- RPCC and Pop Culture Classroom are dedicated to inspiring education and community regardless of age, race, gender, or background – by applying to present you agree to adhere to our mission of unity and inclusivity and refrain from any offensive behavior (including, but not limited to, discriminatory topics, hate speech, personal attacks, etc.).
- RPCC is not able to place individuals on your panels nor will we negotiate appearances with authors, celebrities, or RPCC guests – by applying to present you agree that all of the included panelists are aware of their inclusion on your panel and willing to present at whatever day/time the panel/session is scheduled.
- RPCC does not foster or facilitate connections between presenters and our celebrity guests – by applying to present you agree to NOT attempt to contact RPCC celebrities or to include them on your panel(s)/session(s).
- Applicants are responsible for obtaining permission from all presenters and, should the panel/session be accepted, for informing them of panelists responsibilities and schedule – by applying to present you agree to inform panelists of their schedule, guidelines, check-in information, and responsibilities.
- Panelists and moderators of approved panels (up to 6 per panel/session – including a moderator when applicable) will receive a complimentary day badge to RPCC for the day of the presentation – by applying to present you agree to not sell and/or distribute your complimentary badges.
- The RPCC Programming schedule includes 600+ hours of programming with over 2,500 panelists and presenters – by applying to present you agree to present at anytime during the convention.
- All RPCC panel rooms are equipped with a dais (table) and up to 6 chairs for moderator/panelists, one or more microphones, a projector and a screen. Panel rooms do not include a laptop – by applying to present you agree to bring your own laptop and any necessary connectors/dongles.

2019 RPCC RULES & GUIDELINES

- The goal of every RPCC panel is that it provides some value or learning benefit to attendees – by applying to present you agree to not be conspicuously self-promotional for individuals, organization, and/or products/materials.

